Lovely 2BR flat Great Location

HOUSE RULES

No smoking, as I'm quite allergic. Please put sheets/towels in laundry room upon departure. Don't trash the place and no loud parties :)

ABOUT THE HOST

We are a family of three who love live music, sports, reading and traveling, as well as doing whatever we can to make this world a better place. We absolutely love our home in SF and am excited to share it with visitors from all over the world for their own vacations. We've recently remodeled our kitchen, and given a "facelift" - new paint, floors and furniture in most of the other rooms, so we're really loving the improvements. We rent on an opportunistic basis, whenever we'll be out of town already. For 2018, we plan to be out of town the last few days of March, much of July, and long weekends here and there. We'd love to see you come stay at our warm, inviting home the next time!

HOUSE RULES

PLEASE: Read through our entire listing, as well as all these rules. There is a lot of information, but it's here so that you will be aware of situations or issues that you might not like, but without reading might only discover on arrival. All of this information is here to keep you from booking a spot you might not enjoy.

CHECK-IN: Our check-in time is listed as "flexible" but is really "TBD" - To Be Determined. After booking, please SEND YOUR ARRIVAL TIME, so that we can try to coordinate check-in. We can not offer a lock-box, so we must be here to meet you in person for check in. We will try to accommodate your preferred arrival time, and the sooner you schedule your arrival time with us, the more likely it will be that we can accommodate your timing... but no guarantees! ARRIVAL: Once you have your check-in time, please treat it like an "appointment." If your arrival time changes, or if you'll be arriving significantly off-schedule, please let us know as soon as you can so we c

ABOUT THE HOST

Ivan is a publisher of a book for 4 year olds. (Look for "Four is a little, Four is a LOT" or "fourlosophy".) Wendy is an elementary school teacher. And Milo is a 25 pound mutt. (Terrier...? Chihuahua...? Pinscher...? Perhaps. Sweet...? Charming...? Adorable...? Absolutely!) We've hosted continuously since 2009 - the year Airbnb née "AirBedAndBreakfast" began! We love our home, our hometown, and our neighborhood, and we look forward to sharing them with you. We'll happily make dining recommendations, share insider sight-seeing ideas, and hopefully help you have a great visit.

ABOUT THE HOST

I am a LEGAL San Francisco Short Term Rental Host and possess both a STR Permit and a Business License. San Francisco has been my home for 25 years and I love my condo, my neighborhood and my city! I've lived in many places abroad and in the US but by far, San Francisco is my favorite place in the whole wide world. Having said that, I would like to visit the whole wide world!! I love to travel and enjoy meeting new and interesting people. I am passionate about music and enjoy almost anything to do with the Arts. On a cold rainy day I love a good book or movie. I especially appreciate good company and good conversation but I also like my privacy and alone time. I am a foodie and am always looking for good restaurants or eateries and am blessed that San Francisco has many of these. I totally subscribe to living a sustainable life-style and appreciate if you join me in creating a greener planet. California had four years of drought and while we had more rain and snow this winter, we are still encouraged to conserve water as much as possible in the event the drought returns. Suffice to say I love nature and enjoy camping and hiking. My favorite nature spot is being in the Redwoods and I never tire of Yosemite. But there are so many other great nature places in California to visit and enjoy. I am a non-smoker and I apologize for having a very weak immune system but I am allergic to animal dander, cigarette smoke, dust, pollen and strong scents just to name a few. All my bedding has hypo-allergenic encasings. I work from home and so am flexible about check-in and check-out times depending on whether I already have a guest and if I have meetings, etc.. I have a full time job and while I work at home most of the time, occasionally I do visit customers or need to run personal errands. I would appreciate confirmed guests letting me in advance their time of arrival and departure. Also my condo address is not going to be visible from the street level so please read carefully directions to my place and how to contact me as you turn in my street so I can look out for you. Please do not bother neighbors if you cannot figure out where address is when you arrive. Just call me at my home phone or send me a text message! Thank You and looking forward to making your acquaintance. Cecilia

ABOUT THE HOST

We're avid travelers but now with two kids we don't get as far from home as we used to. When we do travel- we love to stay in real neighborhoods and experience an area the way the folks who live there do. We love to eat, walk and bike (yes, the kids too!). We've lived in The Mission for 15+ years and know it well. It's an area we love to show off to visitors.

In that case, we ask that you depart by 11:00 am - but we are happy to store your luggage in the garage. •If you arrive on a day when we also have departing guests, check-in will be after 4:00 pm, though we will be happy to store your luggage, and will do our best to get you into the suite sooner, if possible. DOORS & LOCKS •Please always re-lock the exterior deadbolt lock when you enter and exit. We will provide you with additional information regarding locks and entry upon your arrival. •If your shoes are dirty or muddy, please

ABOUT THE HOST

I am a freelance travel and food writer, whose work has appeared in National Geographic Traveler, Gourmet, The Washington Post and many other publications. So, if you stay with us, you get bonus professional travel advice about San Francisco and the Wine Country! My husband is an investment manager and author who specializes in impact investing--helping investors who want to make a positive impact on the world, while also seeking profits. We often rent apartments in various parts of the world and enjoy "living like a local" when we travel. We are in our 40s and own our house - so as guests, we are quite responsible and self-reliant. English is our first language. I also speak French and my husband speaks Spanish. We know a bit of Japanese and Italian, too. If you have any questions, just ask!

CALEF HOUSE Rm 2, Priv Rm in Beaut SF Victorian

HOUSE RULES

No smoking, no 420 (marijuana), no drugs, no pets If you use the washer/dryer, there is usually soap detergent available (not guaranteed!), and I ask that you not take any wet clothes out of the washer or dryer and leave them out, to do your own laundry. Run them through the dryer and then start your own washing. If you open the back door to the porch, please be sure to secure its open position so it doesn't slam shut and break the glass, and close it when you're finished being on the porch or in the garden. Turn off lights and appliances when you leave or are not using them, please. If you are the last one to come in at night, please turn off any lights that may still be on. Garbage collection is early on Tuesday mornings, so we put out the garbage on Monday night. Please help with that if appropriate. If you are disposing of cardboard boxes, please break them down and leave them for the recycling. The garbage company will not take boxes that are not broken down. In the kitchen there

ABOUT THE HOST

I have been a Spanish language and cultures educator for 50 years, having worked in public and private educational systems from pre-k to college, graduate school, and adult education for 20 years, before starting my own institute, a full-service Spanish language school, WEEKEND en español®, now celebrating our 30th year. I have traveled throughout most of Latin America and Spain over the years, and a few European countries, but my main focus in recent years has been Mexico, where I travel for business and pleasure. I was born and raised in San Francisco, have lived in other cities, but have been back in my home town, and living in my wonderful Victorian house for 40 years. My home has art, books, and treasures from my many adventures. My school is right next door to my home, so I am easily in touch with those who stay at my house. Since I travel frequently, I have the flexibility to rent out my home or some of the rooms to fellow travelers who want to have a real San Francisco experience. My home is truly centrally located, and in one of the City's most popular neighborhoods--lower Pacific Heights/the Fillmore. We have great dining and shopping, parks, beautiful streets and houses to see and enjoy, easy access to bus lines and main arteries, and great ethnic and street fairs!

Elegant, Antique Edwardian Apartment on Castro

HOUSE RULES

Checking In/Out is flexible, however occasionally we need to work together to resolve conflicts of people arriving and leaving on the same day. I have a place where luggage can be stored. No smoking. No parties. (Having family and friends for dinner, is OK!) 1. Please check that all room lights are off when leaving the apartment. 2. If the heater has been used, please turn off or turn down thermostat when leaving the apartment. 3. Please help us by restricting water usage. California is in a severe multi year drought. Faucet & Shower usage should be limited accordingly. 4. Please remove shoes when entering the apartment to help keep the floors clean and limiting the sound magnification (especially high heels as the clicking sound resonates into the lower unit). 5. Please lock the gates when leaving the apartment (especially the upper gate).

ABOUT THE HOST

I am truly enjoying being back on airbnb and welcoming such a great diverse group of guests. It is energizing and rewarding to share and view the city anew. Whether for business or for pleasure, returning or visiting SF for the first time, it is a rewarding experience to meet such a great group of unique human beings. On Saturday 04/18/15, finished cleaning the attic - big spring cleaning project for 2015. Besides the 500lbs of paper & old records taken to be shredded and recycled, I was amazed at the 'treasures' found in the nooks and crannies of the 1892 attic. Medieval swords and weaponry, iron and gilded candelabras, old prints of Jon Snow (as a child), Brienne of Tarth (in full armor) and Daenerys Targaryen (or is it Cersei Lannister?). Take a peek at the added pictures of the transforming Game of Thrones dining room. (LED Candles and Tapestries are on the way...) We listen to our guest recommendations and continue to improve the place to meet our guests needs. I have recently started restoring and painting (with oils). I have always look at the garden as a canvas, now I get to do with paint instead of with plants. (So far I end-up with more paint on me than the canvas!) University of Connecticut (UCONN) for learning, NYC for playing and California for career, work and residing. Music, theater traveling and a dog name Rocky for keeping in touch with basic feelings and unconditional love. Favorite quotes all the ones related with 'history repeats itself'! Love to travel, beginning to experiment with travel that requires walking, (even between countries) small cities, like the 'walk to Santiago de Compostela from France to Northern Spain and similar walks! (Different way to explore a country and its people!) It is great to explore, get lost, walk and try all the places that make a city or neighborhood alive. (But make sure you have your iPhone or other smart phone with you, just in case. :) San Francisco is the most European of all cities in the United States. You will enjoy it as much as I have for the past 30+ years. The city is going through great changes that have people arguing the pros and cons of these changes. Regardless of which position you espouse, the city is alive with energy that is catching and revitalizing. A city is only as dynamic as its people, and the tech revolution with its infusion of young adults have positively influenced San Francisco in wondrous ways. For example, biking in San Francisco has nearly doubled since 2006 with protected bike lanes and closure of major portions Market Street to allow for bike and public transportation traffic. (Plans are on the way to complete the San Francisco-to-Oakland Bay Bridge path way - it knows reaches treasure island. Restaurants and cafes? We could write volumes about the explosion of such...

Secret Mission Garden

HOUSE RULES

Quiet Hours are 10:30 PM to 8:00 AM on weeknights, 12:00 AM to 10:00 AM on weekends. Those are not "lock out" hours, you may come and go as you like, but if you are home during Quiet Hours, please keep noise to a minimum: No late night showers, no audio without headphones, no sitting and talking in the garden, etc. (Our neighborhood is authentic "San Francisco" in its density and architecture, so there are neighbors very nearby, and sound travels surprisingly well in the still of the night, and through the lightwells between buildings.) No Smoking, anywhere on the property, or within 25 feet of the front gate. (No Smoking in the Garden, No Smoking on the front stairs.) Please note the picture of the stairs down to this room. I like to think of them as "charmingly old" - which means steep, dark and narrow, with a handrail that only goes half way up. Please be sure that everyone in your party will be comfortable going up and down these stairs. No eating or storing of food in the room.

ABOUT THE HOST

Ivan is a publisher of a book for 4 year olds. (Look for "Four is a little, Four is a LOT" or "fourlosophy".) Wendy is an elementary school teacher. And Milo is a 25 pound mutt. (Terrier...? Chihuahua...? Pinscher...? Perhaps. Sweet...? Charming...? Adorable...? Absolutely!) We've hosted continuously since 2009 - the year Airbnb née "AirBedAndBreakfast" began! We love our home, our hometown, and our neighborhood, and we look forward to sharing them with you. We'll happily make dining recommendations, share insider sight-seeing ideas, and hopefully help you have a great visit.

Sunny house with garden

HOUSE RULES

Always check that gas stove burners are off before you leave. CHECK OUT: Please leave the house in order as you found it, all furniture in the same place as you found it, dishes, pots and pans clean and in their proper place, garbage disposed of in the garbage bins, keys on the dining room table. Please do not leave dirty dishes in dishwasher, but run a final cycle even if machine is not full. Please close all windows and doors when you depart. NEIGHBORS: our neighbors are very nice and friendly. We ask you to respect them and to avoid any loud noise after 10 pm.

ABOUT THE HOST

Hi, my name is Cecilia. I am from Rome but live in San Francisco. I love good food, books about history, philosophy, art, anthropology, and film. I dream about having free time to read good novels. I love classical music, jazz, arabic music, and traditional indian dance. My favorite travel destination: a hammock in the shade near the sea, preferably on a hill, a cold tea with lemon and sugar and a good book and also the desire to sleep without a work deadline. As a guest I am independent and curious. As a host I like clear communication and would like for my guest to feel at home and welcome. My motto: a day at the time.
